

Radio

Sixpence None The Richer

It's 9 o'clock she's late for work
She hates her job, her boss is a jerk
Her boyfriend never lets her play
She thinks she's wasting life away
At 5 o'clock she gets in her car
She's driving fast but never goes far
Parked on the freeway, slips in a rage

Time to ride the airwaves

Long live my radio

It never lets me down

Long live my radio

Give me sound

Nothin' to do, nothin' to say

Just try to find another way

To a different world some other plane

Where I can be myself without going insane

This little place that we call life

There's more to it than just pain and strife

Gotta find that somewhere in your brain

Gotta ride the airwaves

Long live my radio

It never lets me down

Long live my radio

Give me sound

Long live my radio

Please make it alright

Long live my radio

Tonight

And when the static's screamin' louder than your life

Just try to ride the waves in the air tonight

I make a dedication and try to get it right

So you can hear it on the airwaves, airwaves

Long live my radio

It never lets me down

Long live my radio

Tonight, yes tonight

Let's go

Long live my radio

It never lets me down

Long live my radio
Give me sound
Long live my radio
Make it alright
Long live my radio
Tonight
Tonight
Long live my radio
Tonight
