Spunky Candy

Sham 69

You're the one that had it sussed
Never in a hurry always in a rush
We were in for a penny out for a pound
Whatever they lost we just found
No there ain't no one in this neighbourhood
Who don't miss you like I knew they wouldSpunky candy's not for sale
Sticky fingers has gone to jail
It's just another Monday morning
And I can't ignore him
I really should have listened
Now my mate's in prison
Cop's and robber's don't have this fun
Whatever we did we didn't kill anyoneWe were in for a penny out for a pound
Whatever they lost we just found
No there ain't no one in this neighbourhood
Who don't miss you like I knew they wouldSpunky candy's not for sale
Sticky fingers has gone to jail
It's just another Monday morning
And I can't ignore him
I really should have listened
Now my mate's in prisonIt make's me so annoyed though at the time we enjoyed
They've taken him away what can I say
I try to raise a smile it's only for a while
They've taken him away what can I say
You're the one that had it sussed
Never in a hurry always in a rushWe were in for a penny out for a pound
Whatever they lost we just found
No there ain't no one in this neighbourhood
Who don't miss you like I knew they wouldSpunky candy's not for sale
Sticky fingers has gone to jail
It's just another Monday morning
And I can't ignore him
I really should have listened
Now my mate's in prisonIt make's me so annoyed though at the time we enjoyed
They've taken him away what can I say
I try to raise a smile it's only for a while
They've taken him away what can I say
It's just another Monday morning
And I can't ignore him

I really should have listened
Now my mate's in prison
It make's me so annoyed though at the time we enjoyed
They've taken him away what can I say
I try to raise a smile it's only for a while
They've taken him away what can I say
