

Let Your Glory Fall

Parachute Band

I bow my knee
With each beat of my heart
I worship you
Lord to know you more
To stand here and adore
The glory of your presence

Your righteousness,
The beauty of your holiness
Let your glory fall
Now in this place

I lay me down
with one touch of your hand
For ever change
Here I stand before you
Speak to me your truth
Then let me say I love you
