

Mestigoth

Varathron

Deadly pain hovering in the night
Shadows are scared around you
Embossed thought and remorse
To the wall of memories. Like a spirit, like a shine
Beyond the eternal galaxies
(At the unknown dimensions)
Where the silence re-echo (like a scream!)
Of ultimate fear which possesses you. With awe you looking at yourself
On the waxen mirror that changes endlessly
Losing your faith and you're crying
For the ultimate gift, they'll promised you. Look the bloodness skies
Look the blasphemous kingdom
Look the shine of victory in their burning eyes
Feel their dark delight
