Don't Wanna Be

Gretchen

All the things you used to say
Color them in any way
You were always running aroundAll the things I used to know
Color them in Indigo
I don't want you bringing me downCalled me on the phone today
Told me to come right away
Said you wanted me by your sideMade me love you even more
Than I ever had before
You were taking me for a rideYou're watching, waiting for me
Desperately ignore the truth
I don't want to be with you
I don't wanna be with you
I don't want to be with you
I don't wanna be...All the times you made me cry
Telling me another lie
I was just a part of your gameI won't take it anymore
Cause I'm stronger than before
Never going to hurt me againAll those things you used to say
Doesn't matter any way
You were always running aroundI won't play that way again
I won't be giving in
It's over and I'm happier nowYou're watching, waiting for me
Desperately ignore the truthI don't want to be with you
I don't wanna be with you
I don't want to be with you
I don't wanna be
