

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Alyssa Reid

I screwed up, I know
And I did wrong, I know
Why'd I let you down?
You're the best thing around There's a hole in my heart
And it tears me apart
'Cause I let you down
And you're the best thing I found I know what you like
Baby, I know what you need
And if you come here tonight
Satisfaction guaranteed
Just call me "baby" again
I ain't too proud to plead
Oh, I'll take care of you
Satisfaction guaranteed The clock ticks it's time
But still I can't unwind
'Cause I need your lips
And your heart next to mine So I drove past your place
Just to see your face
Why'd I let you down
You're the best thing around
This whole f'ing town I know what you like
Baby, I know what you need
And if you come here tonight
Satisfaction guaranteed
Just call me "baby" again
I ain't too proud to plead
Oh I'll take care of you
Satisfaction guaranteed I'm only human, you make mistakes, too
Ain't nobody else, do you like I do you like I do
Forgive and try to, to walk in my shoes
Ain't nobody else, do you like I do you like I do I know what you like
Baby, I know what you need
And if you come here tonight
Satisfaction guaranteed
Just call me "baby" again
I ain't too proud to plead
Oh, I'll take care of you
Satisfaction guaranteed I know what you like
Baby, I know what you need

And if you come here tonight
Satisfaction guaranteed
Just call me "baby" again
I ain't too proud to plead
Oh, I'll take care of you
Satisfaction guaranteed
