

So Many Girls

Usher

The king is back
Hey ladies, you know what time it is?
You ready, playboy? Usher baby, let's get 'em You looking good, so f good I wanna celebrate
And I love the way you doing, girl, you so fly, you 'bout to levitate
If the lights bounce off your gown, baby, I can't help but stare, yeah
And as the lights are goin' down, sparkles [Incomprehensible]
It feel real good in here So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink
So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink So many girls, Asian, Caucasian, Asian,
Jamaican
So many girls, Brazilian, I swear I got a million
So many girls, Egyptian, do you fit that description?
So many girls all over the world, all over the world, all over the world Tell the waitress, I need another round
You hear the bass line coming through the ground?
You know it's on when you make that sound
I can take you home right now Tell the waitress, I need another round
You hear the bass line coming through the ground?
You know it's on when you make that sound
I can take you home right now So many girls and you, and you, yeah, and you, right here We on that [Incomprehensible]
So everything is in slow motion now
These bottles almost gone
But I still ain't trying slow it down, let's go When the DJ says last call I'll be standing on the ball
Oh yeah
Screaming from the windows to the walls
It feels good to be a star, yo, got a light for my cigar So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink
So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink So many girls, Asian, Caucasian, Asian,
Jamaican
So many girls, Brazilian, I swear I got a million
So many girls, Egyptian, do you fit that description?
So many girls all over the world, all over the world Can't decide which one I'll be taking home
I can take you home right now, so many girls
There every other one that waiting on So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink
So many girls so we need champagne, relax, maintain
Wait a minute, let me do my thing that I still won't steal my drink So many girls, Asian, Caucasian, Asian,

Jamaican

So many girls, Brazilian, I swear I got a million

So many girls, Egyptian, do you fit that description?

So many girls all over the world, all over the world, all over the world Tell the waitress, I need another round

You hear the bass line coming through the ground

You know it's on when you make that sound

I can take you home right now Tell the waitress, I need another round

You hear the bass line coming through the ground

You know it's on when you make that sound

I can take you home right now So many girls Usher, yeah, back with this one, baby

This time we ain't goin' away

I see you Mal, damn

Yeah, come on, turn the lights off
