Heartless

Bananarama

Heartless, heartless
HeartlessYour love is too cold to handle
And I should have realized
When I try to talk it over
You always close your eyesHow can I ever love you
When you won't let me through to you'Cause you're heartless
How could you be so heartless
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartlessYou never show your feelings
Just look the other way
When I try to show affection
You always walk awayHow long must you keep me waiting
Maybe you'll never change'Cause you're heartless
How could you be so heartless
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartlessI can't believe anybody could be
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartlessHow can I ever love you
When you won't let me through to you'Cause you're heartless
How could you be so heartless
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartless'Cause you're heartless
How could you be so heartless
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartless'Cause you're heartless
How could you be so heartless
I can't believe anybody could be
So heartless
