

The More I Give

Dr. Feelgood

(wilko johnson)I don't get nothing to nobody

But I get everything for you

My hopes, my plans

My dreams my friends

And most of my money to

If I got one thing left to give

I swear that I haven't a clueThe more I give the less I get from youMy friends told me that a womans love

Is a most peculiar thing

You treat 'em bad, steal their cash

And they treat you like a dog gone king

I never listened to their advice

But now I must admit that it's trueThe more I give the less I get from you- break -My friends told me that a womans love

Is a most peculiar thing

You treat 'em bad, steal their cash

And they treat you like a dog gone king

I never listened to their advice

But now I must admit that it's trueThe more I give the less I get from youI don't get nothing to nobody

But I get everything for you

My hopes, my plans

My dreams my friends

And most of my money to

If I got one thing left to give

I swear that I haven't a clueThe more I give the less I get

The more I give the less I get

The more I give the less I get from you
