Rescue Me Tonight

Yaki-Da

Music and Lyrics: Marie Knutsen
I can see you, when I close my eyes
I hold you in my arms, pretend that you are mine
I wanna break trough leave all my memories behind Forget the dream that I will never find
So cold deep inside, need your attention, somehow Ref: Rescue me tonight, heal my broken heart with tenderness and with sweet caress
Rescue me tonight, need you here beside me more each day, more than words can say
Don't let me stay here waiting
Don't make me cry
Rescue me tonight
Strange emotions, all my pride has gone
I don't care if I beg I don't care if I'm weak Desperation, that one day you will be here to save my soul before I fall too deep Only fear left inside, I hunger for passion somehow Ref.
I'm falling I'm calling
