Gary Clark Jr.

Pretty face. Perfect frame. You got it going on.
Model walk with that baby talk, you know, girl you got me gone.
You so hard to hold onto and Im really, really hanging on. My friends tell me Im too far gone, and I really should be moving on,
but all I can do, lately, is think about you, baby.
All I can do, lately, is think about you, baby, yeah. Had this pretty little thing back home
I cant seem to do nothing, no wrong.
This really dont make no sense, after everything; my money spent she was so hard to hold onto, and I was really, really hanging on. My friends said I was too far gone and I should have been moving along Cause all I can do, lately, is think about you, baby.
All I can do, lately, is think about you, baby. X3 This time shes leaving for sure. I know she wont be back no more.
She left the key to my door. Ill be alone. All I can do, lately, is think about you, baby, yeah. X3
