

Triks Of The Trade

Trik Turner

It's just a process of elimination
I'd like to peel your eyelids back to see
You always torment my own intentions
Credibility is what you strip from me
Livin' on the dark side yellin' at the moon
Seven shades gray you in the temple of the boom
We drop bombs with some pecker wood shit
Fuck bounce to this, we gonna throw fists to this Players and hustlers went out like 99', now its
Two triple zero you still smokin' kind
Play that funky music white boy, fuck that
How 'bout raise up to this level, the beat devil
No regurgitated slop, this ain't rock and hip hop
This is day one roots straight out the shoots
Trik Turner recruits soon to form an army
With one main objective, to silence and eliminate Fake and plastic to drastic for those who hold
The mic like spastic, convulsions divulge
Your weakness, the reason that I speak this Because I'm tired of MC's, ABC's, one two three's
K I D Z's, and all you wanna be's better check your stylee's
I've crossed over, I've crossed all around it
I've found the new sound same old machines
Same old dreams, same old fiends
Chuck T's and SP's, eight O eight's garage sale crates lifted
Ya'll stay splifted, I remain gifted, hundred percent proof after sifted
It's just a process of elimination
I'd like to peel your eyelids back to see
You always torment my own intentions
Credibility is what you strip from me
Someday when I come up I want you to feel
What I had to feel on the other side
Someday when I come up I want you to feel
What I had to feel on the other side
Everything that exists in your perfect world is a web that you weave
Making victims of anything or anyone you never make sense
'Cause you speak in tongues he who thinks he knows all
Will someday fall and someday will eat the words they say
Expectations are set so high if you must degrade me

Then I wonder why?
Is it me or is it something I did
Is it because your simply just jealous of us
You know you've seen many different styles come and go
And you know you cannot get with the way Trix Turner rocks
The show you see what comes around goes around goes down
What comes around goes around goes down
Yes you know what comes around goes around goes down
What comes around goes around goes down
No matter what the consequence is trends
Change as fast as the four winds when push comes to shove
I'll be the one who gets it done
'Cause I never forget man where I come from
It's just a process of elimination
I'd like to peel your eyelids back to see
You always torment my own intentions
Credibility is what you strip from me
Someday when I come up I want you to feel
What I had to feel on the other side
Someday when I come up I want you to feel
What I had to feel on the other side
Someday when I come up I want you to feel
What I had to feel on the other side
