Without You

Nate Sallie

Ive got a black cat walking across my path
And big red monkey thats on my back
And every time I try to run I fall off the track
Seems that since we parted ways everythings gone badAnd now my head is swimming with the tell tale signs
That my world is going under can you throw me a line
With my eyes wide open I still feel blind
When said I didnt need you, I was telling a lieAnd now I know
That I need you in my lifeAnd I feel like Im going out of my mind
And feel like Im always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming ungluedAnd I feel like I cant live, one more day
One more night of my life
Without you, without you
Without you, without youNow, I really am trying to get you back
Cause its true that missing you is what makes me sad
And every time I try to think of the time we had
I see the way I treated you and it makes me madNow, my lifes like a movie thats in rewind
And I need to get away leave it all behind
With the love you gave, you have saved my life
You offered me eternity and you paid the priceAnd I feel like Im going out of my mind
And feel like Im always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming ungluedAnd I feel like I cant live, one more day
One more night of my life
Without you, without you
Without you, without youAnd I feel like Im going out of my mind
And feel like Im always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming ungluedAnd I feel like I cant live, one more day
One more night of my life
Without you, without you
Without you, without youWithout you, without you
Without you, without you
Without you, without you
Without you, without youOne more day, one more night
One more day, one more night of my life
Without you
