Been Lyin'

Rita Ora

Don't wear my shades to be cool
I wear them to hide my tears from you
Behind the smoke, I'm so ready
And I'm tired of you asking why
I said I've been lying to you, you, you
And I've been lying to me too
My heart has been through hell and back
I only dress pretty in black
Middle finger when it comes to love
Act like I don't really give a fuck
Cause I've been lying to you, you, you
I said I've been lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I don't always say what I want to say
I tattoo myself to show my pain
Lonely in a crowded space
Even though we're both face to face
Cause I've been lying to you
Said I've been lying to me too
Hurry up and wait, boy while I cry
Looks like another whisky night
What's inside, I'll never expose
They only see what the camera shows

Cause I've been lying to you
Said I've been lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
It's like the whole world's getting at me
Tryna make everyone happy, that ain't me
Walking around, wearing a smile
But deep down, I'm really fucked up, this ain't me
I don't wanna quit, tryna hang with this
And figure out who the hell I am

I don't mean to make you run away
But I don't wanna forget to be me
Ooooh, ooooh
Oooh, Oooh
The truth is I don't wanna lose you
But I don't wanna lose me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
I've been lying, lying to you, baby
I've been lying, lying to me too
