

Thanks Anyway

Jerry Cantrell

Happy new day, does it matter? Thinning go low
Hight get fatter, well I'm flattered
Joke, pissboy, ain't he a sight? Don't remember
Who won the fight, well I got it rightHow could you know for me what's right?
Can't live for me, oh and you can't die, right?
Thanks for tryingTorn today, sweaty pillow, Hawaii jet plane
Sit by window, where did time go?How could you know for me what's right?
Can't live for me, oh and you can't die, right?
How could you know for me what's right?
I depreciate, you search and I hide but thanks for tryingI won't forget it, it'll kill us if we let it and I don't want
To regret it, still burning since we set itHow could you know for me what's right?
Can't live for me, oh and you can't die, right?
How could you know for me what's right?
I depreciate, you search and I hide but thanks for trying
