

Erika

Major Hans Friess

On the moor blooms a small little flower
and that means: Erika Named from the 100, 000 small little bees that swarm around Erika because her heart is full of sweets
A delicate fragrance drifts/wafts from the little flower
On the moor blooms a small little flower
and that means: Erika
In the hometown lives a small young girl
and that means: Erika
This girl is my faithful little sweetheart and my happiness: Erika
If the red and purple heather blooms I sing to this song greet her
On the moor blooms a small little flower
and that means: Erika
In my little room flourishes also a little flower
and that means: Erika
Already near daybreak as soon as the dawning light who looks at me: Erika
And then it's me, speaking it loudly:
Do you also think of your small bride?
In the hometown crying for you a young girl
and that means: Erika

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>