

She'll Have to Go

Simply Red

Your chances are runnin' out
I can see possibilities clearly
The poor man who put those rumors about
Obviously didn't really hear me Breakin' our backs with slurs
And takin' our tax for murderin' The only thing I know
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go Your grass may be greener man
I was born on the pavement, I'm standin' in
It's blue grass honey, it's a workin' man
It's more than all the things that you're demandin' Breakin' our backs with slurs
And takin' our tax for murderin' The only thing I know
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go Breakin' our backs with slurs
And takin' our tax for murderin' The only thing I know
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
She'll have to go
