

Broken Heroes

Chris Norman

Love is like a loser's game I'll never play again I'm through with love forever.

Oh

I'm like a fallen star Love can leave a scar It's raining in my heart babe.

Yes

it's true

I'm still missing you. Broken heroes and fallen angels Broken dreams and hearts of stone There's no smoke girl

without a fire And I'm standing here alone all alone. How much have I sacrificed?

My heart aches deep inside

In the name of love

girl.

And how much time and loneliness

I traded for a kiss It's raining in my heart babe.

Yes

it's true

I'm still missing you. Broken heroes and fallen angels

Broken heroes and fallen angels
