Brazil

Declan McKenna

I heard you sold the amazon,
To show the country that you're from,
Is where the world should want to be
For a fine something all people need.
I'm faithless now though we win every time and I don't know how,
Cause I haven't bought you and I haven't sold me,
But the people are dying to get on TV.

I heard he lives down a river somewhere,
With 6 cars and a grizzly bear,
He's got eyes, but he can't see,
Well he talks like an angel but he looks like me,

Oh Lord!
What have I become?
I'm the face of god I'm my fathers son,
I'm not, what you think you see I know you
Can't eat leather but you can't stop me,
Why would you lie, why would you lie about how you feel?
I've got a mission and my mission is real
Because you've had your chances, yeh you've had enough
I'm gonna burn your house down to spread peace and love
And it gets me down,
Oh Lord how it gets me down.

I heard he lives down a river somewhere,
With 6 cars and a grizzly bear,
He's got eyes, but he can't see,
Well he talks like an angel but he looks like me,
Oh Lord!

I wanna play the beautiful game while I'm in Brazil
Cause everybody plays the beautiful game out in Brazil
And it's all you've ever wanted, and it's all that you want still,
Don't you wanna play the beautiful game out in Brazil?
I wanna play the beautiful game while I'm in Brazil
Cause everybody plays the beautiful game out in Brazil
And it's all you've ever wanted, and it's all that you want still,
Don't you wanna play the beautiful game out in Brazil?

I heard he lives down a river somewhere,
With 6 cars and a grizzly bear,
He's got eyes, but he can't see,
Well he talks like an angel but he looks like me,
I heard he lives down a river somewhere,
With 6 cars and a grizzly bear,
He's got eyes, but he can't see,
Well he talks like an angel but he looks like me,
