Workin' Woman Blues

Valerie June

I ain't fit to be no mother
I ain't fit to be no wife yet
I been workin' like a man, y'all
I been workin' all my life yeahThere ain't no dinner on the table
Ain't no food in the 'fridgerator
I'll go to work and I'll be back later
I go to work said I'd be back laterLord you know I'm a good looking woman
Lord you know I'm a good looking girl
If you want to give me something
Anything in this great big world yeah
Lord you know that I am ready for my sugar my sugar daddy
