Carpe Diem (feat. RoZe)

Retro Pak

instrumental Drama (???)

Another night slips away in other words
I should say there are no words
You should say there are no words (X2)

Are we blind to the fact that sometimes that I see (?) wonder waking up to new days
We ainâ€™t got (?) I call my number
Everydays a new one so we just party like our last
We just chillin, drinkin, telling jokes until we are just (???)
Eating with the family (we crash?) missing the ones we lost in the past
Living so fast defy slope I might hit the dash
Kids want to be grown and begging to be on their own
And single mother fathers yaâ€™ll please stay strong
I remember family reunions, my first communion those were the days
Chillin with my brother in the park, where we play
Playing saga on my bedroom floor
As a kid what more could I ask for Act up at school watch my mother take on a crash (??)
But now I got my own kids and my own dreams
Sometimes I wish I could pause the scene and cherish every moment in between Enjoy life â€˜cause it goes by fast weâ€™re only human we make mistakes
But remember, to set it straight â€˜cause

Another night slips away in other words
I should say there are no words
You should say there are no words (X2)

Letâ€™s get back to the work that we just living
Daily struggles got me wanting to give in
I just fight (?????) (and write?) something relevant
Things come and go but Iâ€™m feeling hellbound and (heaven?) sick
No time to get it (??) â€˜cause we got to pay the rent
So we living (??) take the check
Hot days and cold nights we working to break our neck
But we have to live for the moment take it day by day
Seize it, own it, tell who wants to be old and lonely
It (???) on your bills so you donâ€™t go hungry
But where did we go from here

This roller coaster-ride went (???)
Just keep your head up and keep the fate
For every dark night there is a brighter day
But we all have our own (??) and our own dreams
Sometimes we should just pause the scene and cherish every moment in between Weâ€™re only humans we make mistakes
But please remember, that we have to, set it straight

Another night slips away in other words
I should say there are no words
You should say there are no words (X4)
