Go

Jamelia

Say, why dont you change your mind?
Think it over one last time
Like you dont know yourselfOur labors all depend on you
Theres consequence in what you choose
But if you loose I wont forgive myselfShowing that much self control
Wont bring back your life when youre old
Do something for yourself'Cause oh, if you dont
You will never know, oh, noGo, why would stay when it does nothing for you?
Go, watching your pain only makes me surer
Go, holding you down, theres no way
That I can keep youI say go ahead and save your life
Do something for the first time
Its the least you could do, yeahWho cares if they wont take the risk
Your biggest ones not doing this
I cannot live for youInfinite responsibilities
How about living duty free?
Emancipate yourself'Cause oh, if you dont
You will never know, oh noGo, why would stay when it does nothing for you?
Go, watching your pain only makes me surer
Go, holding you down, theres no way
I can keep youHeavens sake I can take disappointment
But I cant understand why you wont leave?
Youve been quiet, awful quiet, no enjoyment
Comes a point when you got to take what you needDont forget I respect what you gave up
But you lost such a lot along the line
Get it back, get it back, rise up
Get it back, get it back, oh, you gotta goGo, why would stay when it does nothing for you?
Go, watching your pain only makes me surer
Go, holding you down, theres no way
That I can keep you, oh, no, no, no, no, noGo, why would stay, why would stay?
Go, watching your pain only makes me surer
Go, holding you down theres no way
That I can keep you
