Do Ya

Utopia

In this life I've seen everything I can see, woman
I've seen lovers flying through the air hand in hand
I've seen babies dancing in the midnight sunAnd I've seen dreams that came from the heavenly skies above
I've seen old men crying at their own grave sides
And I've seen pigs all sitting, watching picture slidesBut I've never seen nothing like youDo ya, do ya want my love?
(Woman)
Do ya, do ya want my face?
(I need you)
Do ya, do ya want my mind?
(I'm saying)
Do ya, do ya want my love?Well, I heard the crowd singin' out of tune
As they sat and sang 'Auld Lang Syne' by the light of the moon
I heard the [Incomprehensible] bangin' on his drums
And I heard the police playin' with their gunsBut I've never heard nothin' like youDo ya, do ya want my love?
(Woman)
Do ya, do ya want my face?
(I need you)
Do ya, do ya want my mind?
(I'm saying)
Do ya, do ya want my love?
(Look out)
