Rescuer

Alorion

Everyone whoâ€™s ever loved
Has trouble letting go
When the ones they used to forever hold
Become someone they simply know

And if I could say
Our love has gone astray
Would you try to find it with me
Or just simply walk away?
Hear my voice and follow it
And I swear you will remain:
Back & Forth
You'll never understand this.

The wind attacks me
The coldness haunts my mind
A breeze sets in me
A chill dwells within my spine
I watched you take a breath
I watched you fuel the air
I walk this broken path
Itâ€™s roads donâ€™t lead anywhere

Speak now // Forever hold your peace
Safe & Sound
You'll always be at ease
Before you drown
Sink on down
Violent waves
You're failing

Everyone whoâ€™s ever loved
Has trouble letting go
When the ones they used to forever hold
Become someone they simply know
But tell me why
Our memories have blistered my being
My heart still lives for us
Because beating is believing

I've walked down this road
For what seems like a century
Questioning if you'll return
Or if this is what is meant to be
I've waited and waited
For your passion to find me
Not knowing that our love
Had died miles behind me
This frostbit failure
This frigid wrath
Are the only things that join
Down this passionless path
And as I stop for a moment
The cold air holds my hand
As my life smashes to pieces
Like a diamond into sand

I fought and failed to restore our ground
Now I'm lost and blind in the silent sound Searching for what we were
Down this path:
Lies the rescuer

Everyone whoâ€™s ever loved
