Divine Insanity

Lovex

Dying smiling faces, I
I see tears in joyful eyes
Silent screams carrying the sounds of blissThere is no leap of faith
The choice ain't yours to make
For your mind can't own the purpose of soulUnder the ground I fly
To hide from the brilliant sky
Under my armor I cryDoing it for the one who saved your life, I've done it all
Doing it for the one who stole your life
It all comes down, it all blows up
When I love the most I lose my touch
When I live the most I've already given upDivine insanity
Sweetness in brutality
Chaos in the cradle of lost realityI gave up everything
To find the soul within
Only to see the wonders of NothingDivine insanity
How it all could be
How it all should be
