

Band-aids

David Correy

(Bridge)

Had to let the Sun go down,
Waiting on the sunrise now;
Had to let the Sun go down,
Waiting on the sunrise now;

(Verse1)

I had to get my courage up
I knew I had to toughen up;
This chapter in my life's a must,
No more Band-Aids on me

(Pre Chorus)

Been walking down this lonely road;
Trying to find my way home,
Disappointed from the start
I was trapped because this is what I slaved for;
Know this what you came for,
Wish I would of gave more
Maybe should of prayed more.

(Chorus)

And this is for the World to see
I been drowning in my melodies
Hanging onto memories;
But no more Band-Aids on me
Open arms I gave it all ( I gave my all)
I was praying for my wake up call ( my wake up call )
Hardest thing I ever did;
But no more Band-Aids on me.

(Verse 2)

Over though it for a long time
I knew I missed my turn in line
Two different pages with a story time;
But no more Band-Aids for me
And this is how it's gotta be,
You better off apart from me
I pray for you so pray for me

(Bridge)

Had to let the sun go down;
Waiting on the sunrise now,
Had to let the sun go down;

Waiting on the sunrise now.
(Chorus)
And this is for the World to see
I been drowning in my melodies
Hanging onto memories;
But no more Band-Aids on me
Open arms I gave it all ( I gave my all)
I was praying for my wake up call ( my wake up call)
Hardest thing I ever did
But no more Band-Aids on me
(Bridge)
Had to let the sun go down:
Waiting on the sunrise now,
Had to let the sun go down;
Waiting on the sunrise now,
In the most of doubt
I know I gave my all
So I pray ( I pray )
I pray for you so pray for me
(Chorus)
And this is for the World to see
I been drowning in my melodies
Hanging onto memories;
But no more Band-Aids on me
Open arms I gave it all ( I gave my all)
I was praying for my wake up call ( my wake up call)
Hardest thing I ever did
But no more Band-Aids on me
(Bridge)
Had to let the sun go down;
Waiting on the sunrise now,
Had to let the sun go down;
Waiting on the sunrise now.
No more Band-Aids on me
