

Breed

Embodiment

Pride yourself unholy one
Never grasp the throne of God
Receive your fate your prideful pig
Forever you will not winI will not be deceived
I will not give into your temptation
I am bought by the Blood of Jesus
The power of heaven protects me
Meaningless to me is blasphemiesYou say I am weak
(By Christ I'm made strong)
Denying temptation
(Through God)Sit at your throne of this world
Creating your patchwork of hate
Call me what you want
The truth remains the sameI am branded Christian
Immortal soul of mine
Fearing not this world
I am enslaved by no man
Remaining in my faith
I do not stand aloneMy spirit is willing
Falling to my knees a servant
Unto Christ in this world
Of disease forever, eternalStanding by my Father's side
As I watch this world
Return to Sodom & GomorrahI hate to watch you fall
I bow down to only one God
Christ who died and arose
And to see you wallow in your shame
And to deny His love and grace?
I hate to watch you fallPride yourself unholy one
Never grasp the throne of God
Receive your fate your prideful pig
Forever you know you will not winForget my past
In time you stand to question my faith
A continuing game of chasing your tail
I will not give into your clouded ways
And from this path my foot will never strayI will not be deceived
I will not give into your temptations
I am bought by the Blood of Jesus
The power of heaven protects me

Meaningless to me is blasphemies
