

Dreamer

Before the Dawn

[music & words: Tuomas Saukkonen] I gave my speech, I took my stand draw my marks into the sand and waited for the tide to wash away my fault with violence I purify, with rusty nails I crucify the other one behind the broken mirror on the wall I take a step towards death, each time little dreamer dies inside I take a step towards death, each time little dreamer cries inside the purgatory burns inside, I perish at the stake for crimes of other one behind the broken mirror on the wall disgrace me and break me burn my wings and re-arrange me still bleeding and feeding with blood the angels of decay

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>