The Only One

Glenn Hughes

There is no softer voice
You are my angel of the morning
You are my only choice
This must be heaven, I hear you callin'One touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chainsYou're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for realI need you next to me
I need your body closer against my skin
I can hardly wait
You just can't hide my love, won't you let me in?One touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chainsYou're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for realYou're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real, only oneOne touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chainsYou're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for realYou're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for realYou're the only
The only, the only, the only one
The only one
The only one I love
