

Crown Of Thorns

Social Distortion

Pretty much been alone now, for almost five years
I could always find a way, to hide these bitter tears
And still I am waiting, and wishing somehow
I wish I knew then, what I know nowIt's no bed of roses, it ain't no crown of thorns
Better than lonely, I've been there beforeGotta bad reputation, for playing with love
Gonna play again now, and beat the odds above
And still I am waiting, and wishing somehow
I wish I knew then, what I know nowIt's no bed of roses, it ain't no crown of thorns
Better than lonely, I've been there beforeAre you tired of being alone?
Or have you fallen out of love?
Do you care enough about yourself?
I have worn you're crown of thornsIt's no bed of roses, it ain't no crown of thorns
Better than lonely, I've been there beforeIt's no bed of roses, it ain't no crown of thorns
Better than lonely, I've been there before
