

Our Addictions

Art in Manila

Silhouette in a smoke filled room
I see no evil and I speak none too
I know it's hard to say
No, it was a long long time ago
But now as a whole woman
You have to understandOur addictions breakin' it hard
Our addictions makin' it hard[Incomprehensible] conspiracy
Justice faults is our reality
He said, "Take off your clothes"
And the war began but it's a war at home
Were we ever free, if it's this easy?Our addictions breakin' it hard
Our addictions makin' it hard
