

Goin' Crazy

Lucky Luciano

Chorus:

im going out of my mind just thinkin bout you another day in my life baby without you im going crazy, im going crazy

Lucky Luciano:

Yea im with her but im thinkin bout you cant get you off my mind baby wat im gonna do? had it all now its gone feelin so alone wanna pick up the fone tell you come back home still smell ya at heart and perfume on my sheets its so hard for a rapper not to cheat the women and the liquor had me blinded i'll give it all up for you i promise like it dont faze me but im going crazy dont wanna spend another day without ma lady huh yea i miss you girl and the money aint nuthin i'll give you the world

Chorus x's 2

She with me through it all when im broke when i ball now im waitin by the telephone for her to call had a star on my team but i messed that up i no i did you wrong just way too much let me get ma life together and ill be right there hope your still waiting for me i no it aint fair ring on your finger, your name on my arm she wanted me to changed but i couldnt so she gone she the only girl who know me all the rest fony i miss the way you kissin and miss the way you hold me wake up in a big house all alone now i dont want the fame just give me my girl

Chorus x's 2

i know they dont love me they just know lucky you were down with me before i got the money thats why i need ya where ma mamasita? going out of my mind cuz i cant see ya never know wat you got till its gone if you got a good woman dont do her wrong man i should've kept her when i had her now i hope somebody dont grab her
