

Talkin' About You

Ray Charles

Who is my friend, when all friends are gone
Nobody but you, I do mean you
Who is my friend, now, when all friends are gone
Nobody but you, oh, oh
Who is my friend, now, now, when all friends are gone
Who always defend me, if I'm right or wrong
Nobody but you, oh, yeah, yeah
Nobody but you, child
I do mean you
Who is the salt in my bread
Nobody but you, child
And I do mean you
Who is the salt, now, in my bread
Nobody but you, oh, oh
Who is the salt, now, in my bread
Who is my doctor on my sick bed
Nobody but you, oh now
Nobody but you
And I do mean you
Who knows how to love me, in my way
Nobody but you, child, and I do mean you
Who knows how to love me, in my way
Nobody but you, oh, oh
Who knows how to love me, in my way
Who's always there, every night and day
Nobody but you, oh, oh, now
Nobody but you
Talkin' about you
Oh, about you, ooh, oh
All about you
