A Legend Reborn

Hammerfall

You've been fighting for much too long
You saw the future and what to come
Restless spirits out on the run
Among the shadows of the sunYou are the rising resistance now
We've come to show you a way somehow
Beyond the past and in secrecy
We found it all but we want moreWe come from the age of chivalry
Metal machines, unchained and free
We are hear for you to seeFlying on wings of steel
Thundering, we are breaking the seal
Fighting for the oath we sworn
To spread the word of the Legend RebornMoving silent like a gentle breeze
The troops of metal and we do as we please
We are the restless, we are the wild
Burning hearts that never dieWe are going against the tide
The hammer has fallen, a thorn in your side
Break the silence or take the fall
The mighty Templars will take it allWelcome the age of chivalry
Where we all will be set free
It's the time for you and meFlying on wings of steel
Thundering, we are breaking the seal
Fighting for the oath we sworn
To spread the word of the Legend RebornSons and brothers fight or fall
With our sisters and daughters
We're standing one for allFlying on wings of steel
Thundering, we are breaking the seal
Fighting for the oath we sworn
To spread the word of the Legend RebornFlying on wings of steel
Thundering, we are breaking the seal
Fighting for the oath we sworn
To spread the word of the Legend Reborn
