

Waitin' On a Dark Eyed Gal

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Well, the midnight train can come and go without me
Oh, I don't need no taxi back to town
I think, I'll just stay right here in this deep old light Was supposed to meet someone here tonight
Now, I'm sittin' here thinking
Waitin' on a dark-eyed gal No, I don't mind the rain, I never even noticed
And I don't feel the cold, it wouldn't matter anyhow
As a matter of fact, I could stay till the break of day I don't see as I'm in anybody's way
I'm just sittin' here thinking
Waitin' on a dark eyed gal She said, She'd meet me at the station
Don't believe, she'll keep me waiting very long, very long
She never was one to let me know her mind So, I'll stay right here just doing my time
Just sitting here thinking
Waitin' on a dark eyed gal Yeah, the midnight train has come and gone without me
I don't need no taxi back to town
I think, I'll just stay right here in this deep old light Was supposed to meet someone here tonight
Now, I'm sittin' here thinking
Waitin' on a dark eyed gal Yeah, I'm just sitting here thinking
Waitin' on a dark-eyed gal

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>