Rampid

Switchblade Symphony

Tomorrow
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everythingTomorrow
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everythingWe are lines too little Fading fast away
Too little we all shine
We will find a wayWe are lines, we are lines
Fading fast away, fading fast awayWhat happens
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everythingWhat happens
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everything
