

The Rest Of Our Lives (Feat Brandy)

Tyrese

Eyes wide shut
But deep down I knew you were the one
I was hanging on by a thin, thin thread
'Cause in the past, those who got in my head
But you made it worth it to see what it really could be
And I
I wouldn't trade in the love I've been given
This, girl, I promise
It's worth more than diamonds and money couldn't buy it
Now that the past is the end, girl, it's time to begin
The rest of our lives Love just don't come easy
You gotta work hard, you gotta work smart
So when you're done, it's amazing
I smile inside of the love you give to me
And I feel your loyalty so I give it back daily
Now that my heart is yours, we'll share forever
And
I wouldn't trade in the love I've been given
This, girl, I promise
It's worth more than diamonds and money couldn't buy it
Now that the past is the end, girl, it's time to begin
The rest of our lives Boy, it's always been my dream
To raise a family, oh yes it is
And, baby, there's no future
Without you here with me, oh
I can't wait for you to have my baby (I love you, I love you)
(Let's go half on a lifetime, yeah)
(There's no me without you, yeah)
(Just promise me one thing) I wouldn't trade in this love I wouldn't trade in the love I've been given (no, I wouldn't trade it baby)
This girl, I promise (just waking up on the side of you is the best part of my day)
We've been through it all (been through it all)
But thank God we made it (yes, we made it baby)
They counted us out (counted us out)
But we're still standing here Now that my heart is yours
We'll share
The rest of our lives
