Florence

Orange O'clock

Too many pages turned from the book
Since you've gone
Nothing compares to you and I
The story lost its sense
... are all upside down
You've moved on and I'm still stuck behind
'Cause I regret it
Oooooh

I'm drowning in this ocean full of emptiness
I think I'm just about to lose control
I could've let you go, I still don't know - ooooh
I should've tried
To leave it behind
I should've tried

I've been trying to step back to put my feelings aside
The memories keep brushing through my mind
I've been seeking but it's hard to hide
You are the only one
Tell me, am I wrong?
But I regret it

Ooooh

I'm drowning in this ocean full of emptiness
I think I'm just about to lose control
I could've let you go, I still don't know
I should've tried
To leave it behind
I should've tried
Ooooooooh oooohoooh ooohhhhh ooooh oooooh oooooh oooooh oooohooh
