

A Moment To Myself

Alex Smoke

I saw a rainbow just earlier today
Lately those rainbows be comin' round like everyday
Deep in the struggle I have found the beauty of me
God is watchin' and the Devil finally let me be
Here in this moment to myself
I'm gonna vibe with no one else
There is a conversation I need to have with me
It's just a, a moment to myself, yeah, yeah, yeah
A moment to myself
They're all a-lookin' at you, you've got everything to lose
Oh get up and dance girl, sing your tu-rah-loo-rah-loo
And quit bitchin 'bout how don't nobody really love you
Spread your rubber lovin' and it bounces back to you
Here in this moment to myself
I'm gonna vibe with no one else
There is a conversation I need to have with me
It's just a, a moment to myself, yeah, yeah
Flowers are bloomin' under gray skies and moons
Seems like I'm winnin' everytime I lose
And the answers I been looking for been here all this time
Spread my rubber lovin' and everything was fine
Here in this moment to myself
I'm gonna vibe with no one else
There is a conversation I need to have with me
It's just a, a moment to myself, yeah, yeah, yeah
Here in this moment to myself
I'm gonna vibe with no one else
There is a conversation I need to have with me
It's just a, a moment to myself, yeah, yeah
A moment to myself, a moment to myself
A moment to myself, a moment to myself
A moment to myself, a moment to myself
It's just a, a moment to myself
