Chances

Hot Chocolate

When all have lost faith in you
'cos the dice you threw didn't show your number
And they all think your winning days are through I'll be there to pick you up.
Your confidence mustn't start to dropI'll take my chance 'cos I have faith in you.
So spin the wheel
call your number - lucky my stakes on you
We may lose but the game we must play and it's true.
Life's the dealer and your cards I cannot seeOut all on earth I'll take my chances on you.Take my chances on you - take my chances on you
Take my chances on you - take my chances on you
When all your so called friends used to call
