Loveless Wrists

Bayside

Where will I be when there's pain
As far as eyes can see
Stand in line for days and nights
Making up lost time, this is how I feelSo now I cut these loveless wrists
My head sure hurts today
I'll take another twenty pills
And try to make my troubles go awaySo now I cut these loveless wrists
My head sure hurts today
I'll take another twenty pills
And try to make my troubles go away, awayI once felt strong, it wouldn't last for long
To wrap my hands around my neck
Kill myself again and cut my arms
With the biggest knife that I can standWhy waste time lifting my head
Keep it down and save face instead
So why waste time lifting my head
Keep it down, save face insteadI once felt strong, it wouldn't last for long
To wrap my hands around my neck
Kill myself again, cut my arms
With the biggest knife that I can standStand in line for days and nights
Making up for lost time, and this is how it feelsIt's more than I can stand
