Broken Things

Drew Greenway

When lifeâ€™s got me beaten down and the worldâ€™s got me to my knees
When Iâ€™m just hopelessly searching worry steals away my sleep
When I feel like this broken vessel is too cracked to hold your grace
I look back and I think of you and what you did for me

This I know
You take broken things and make them beautiful
This I know
Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

When nothing about my day went right
Everything I did fell apart before my eyes
When my need for my own perfection
Gets in the way of what you want me to do today, oh
Oh I know that thereâ€™s no perfect person
But still I try
Oh Iâ€™ll always end up disappointed
Unless I realize

This I know
You take broken things and make them beautiful
This I know
Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

There are times when I feel like Iâ€™ll never measure up
Then I know that your body was broken for someone like me

This I know
You take broken things and make them beautiful
This I know
Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

This I know
You take broken things and make them beautiful
This I know
Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

This I know
Oh, this I know
