

Broken Things

Drew Greenway

When lifeâ€™s got me beaten down and the worldâ€™s got me to my knees

When Iâ€™m just hopelessly searching worry steals away my sleep

When I feel like this broken vessel is too cracked to hold your grace

I look back and I think of you and what you did for me

This I know

You take broken things and make them beautiful

This I know

Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

When nothing about my day went right

Everything I did fell apart before my eyes

When my need for my own perfection

Gets in the way of what you want me to do today, oh

Oh I know that thereâ€™s no perfect person

But still I try

Oh Iâ€™ll always end up disappointed

Unless I realize

This I know

You take broken things and make them beautiful

This I know

Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

There are times when I feel like Iâ€™ll never measure up

Then I know that your body was broken for someone like me

This I know

You take broken things and make them beautiful

This I know

Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

This I know

You take broken things and make them beautiful

This I know

Cause you took a broken me and you made me whole

This I know

Oh, this I know
