

Saved By Grace

Jadon Lavik

Somewhere deep inside my heart and mind
Your spirit moves and brings Your words to life
 Revealing all my sins, my careless ways
 Reminding me, my debt to You has been paid
 It has been paidAnd Ive been saved by grace
 And Ive been saved by love
 There is nothing more You could have done
 You sent Your son
And Ive been saved by graceSearching for the words to thank my king
 Humbled by my silent offering
 Tears of joy well from the depths of my soul
 There is no greater gift I know , Ill ever know
 Ever knowAnd Ive been saved by grace
 And Ive been saved by love
 There is nothing more You could have done
 You sent Your son
And Ive been saved by grace, saved by graceIve been saved by grace
 Ive been saved by love
 There is nothing more You could have done
 You sent Your sonIve been saved by grace
 Ive been saved by love
 There is nothing more You could have done
 You sent Your son, You sent Your sonIve been saved by grace
 Ive been saved by love
 There is nothing more You could have done
 You sent Your son
