

Jealous

Faith Evans

Now let me be real with you about my feelings
The way that I deal with you, I just can't conceal it
Now I don't really mind all your female friends and all
But just know that I'm possessive and aggressive
When it comes to you I'm so jealous! 'N I can't help it
I'm not the type that cares to share because I'm selfish
I'm so jealous! I can't control it
An' ain't no need to lie about it 'cause I know it Now don't you get it confused 'cause I'm not trippin'
And I know there's no substitute for what I'm givin'
But all that super friendly extra
Lovey dovey hugs and greetings
Make me feel like you might be out there cheating I'm so jealous! 'N I can't help it
I'm not the type that cares to share because I'm selfish
I'm so jealous! I can't control it
An' ain't no need to lie about it 'cause I know it Every now and then I might check your caller ID
Just to see who's calling other than me
And every other girl I know does the same thing too
But they don't ever say that they do I'm so jealous! 'N I can't help it
I'm not the type, that cares to share because I'm selfish
I'm so jealous! I can't control it
An' ain't no need to lie about it 'cause I know it I'm so jealous! 'N I can't help it
I'm not the type that cares to share because I'm selfish
I'm so jealous! I can't control it
An' ain't no need to lie about it 'cause I know it An' ain't no need to lie about it now
That I am so [Incomprehensible]
