One More Rainy Day

Deep Purple

Changes, visible changes
Sky looking so forlorn
It looks like the world's been born
On one more rainy dayTrying to see the sunlight
My heart's crying out loud
I try to see through the clouds
On one more rainy dayOne more rainy day
Once again my mind is gray
This is what a rainy day can do
One more rainy day
One more rainy daySun starts shining on through
New world, my world with you
It's strange what sun can do
On one more rainy dayOne more rainy day
Once again my mind is gray
This is what a rainy day can do
One more rainy day
One more rainy dayOne more rainy day
One more rainy day
One more rainy day
