

Retribution for the Dead

Autopsy

Obsessed with revenge,
Digging up the putrid curse
Retribution for one stricken down,
Now the morbid winds will call See the victim dying in fear,
Bloody corpse drained of life
You called upon this brutal slaughter,
Now pay the suicidal price Memories arrive from years ago,
A man ripped in half
By the hand of the dead,
Now the curse is you Retribution for the dead
Soon you'll rise to kill again
