

Is It Alright?

Mikal Cronin

Look up, head up in the sky where the birds they fly high for you
 Been waitin'
 been waitin' a long time to find a way up there too
 Is it alright?Is it alright?Is it alright?Is it alright?
 Too late, you're making your way, further everyday from her
I'm low down, my head on the ground where it's sinking until it's sure
 Is it alright?Is it alright?Is it alright?Is it alright?
 Is it alright?
 That I'm down on my hands and knees my way back home
