Breath

Waylayers

I'm alive, I can feel the blood
Rushin' through my veins
An' that's all I need to know
'Cuz I'm not lookin' for a change
'Cuz I got friends and enemies
But it just don't bother me
'Cuz as long as I believe I can breath
Metamorphosis, Battle Axe fortress
Four hundred horsepower, full moon the sorceress
Swollen Members and my girl NF
The Predators and the Terminator, the track's called 'Breath'
Why hurt 'em later? We can do so much damage, now
Come, track 'em when I hit 'em so much garbage around
Yells, bells and whistles like the carnival sounds
Phenomenal adrenaline from the words of my mouth
How did Shane manage to rap with brain damage?
I'm fat, remain famished and stacked
You're playing with a praying mantis
In fact you're gigantic, you sink like Titanic
Panic attack act up and I'm a masta
Crash is a disaster, smash like Master Blaster
Punka, rankle monster wants to stop ya
Crush 'em 'cuz I'm vain, crush 'em, none remains
Will tomorrow be the same? Blood rushing through my veins
I'm alive, I can feel the blood
Rushin' through my veins
An' that's all I need to know
'Cuz I'm not lookin' for a change
'Cuz I got friends and enemies
But it just don't bother me
'Cuz as long as I believe I can breath
I know this before I knew how to
Now we are on this point to do
What a deeper subject to do
Better it be easy or not to do
I know this before I knew how to
Now we are on this point do do
What a deeper subject to do
Better it be easy or not to do

I savor the mouth
I'm like the Krispy Kreme conveyor belt
With the synth notes Swollen like a lympth node
We went from instro to intro to in-store
Coincidentally, messin' up your mental state

We making pens blow as if I'm sent to pay
Me and my kinfolk pretend to
Nobody can do it like your man, Mok
My band's dope the tracks flow
I'm beautiful, that's for sho
The Harmony Queen, the Decibel Kings
Never knew but we were born to do incredible things
I let a ring like freedom swings letters from my jaw
Twenty six in the mix and we do it better than y'all
I'm a Neanderthal, you're bound to fall
I'm born to brawl, we warned you all
And sworn to y'all, it's wonderful, the underworld
Beautiful minds tryin' to keep it independent in recruitable times
I'm alive, I can feel the blood
Rushin' through my veins
An' that's all I need to know
'Cuz I'm not lookin' for a change
'Cuz I got friends and enemies
But it just don't bother me
'Cuz as long as I believe I can breath
I'm alive, I can feel the blood
Rushin' through my veins
An' that's all I need to know
'Cuz I'm not lookin' for a change
'Cuz I got friends and enemies
But it just don't bother me
'Cuz as long as I believe I can breath
We crashing through you, feel the magnitude
We crashing through inside of you
It has to do with how you do your thing
Be true to only you
Moka always telling you
Just take your soul and talent to
The next plateau and balance who you try to think
No time to lose
I'm alive, I can feel the blood
Rushin' through my veins
An' that's all I need to know
'Cuz I'm not lookin' for a change

'Cuz I got friends and enemies
But it just don't bother me
'Cuz as long as I believe that I can breath
