Patient Zero

Delusion Squared

I breathe alone, my skin begins to peel Forsaken in my misery to battle this ordeal I can't resist the cravings, no I have to ease the pain My screaming brain is melting slowly, turning me insane Devastation all across the nation
Infected, but I am not alone
My days are numbered but I am a patient From zero the counting has begun I resist resistance, I survive the hangman's noose Future looks sinister,
I'm a zombie on the loose
Cuz I feed in darkness,
I feast in broad daylight Whatever you do, better hold on tight and stay out of my sight Evacuation all across the nation
Infected, but I am not alone
Our days are numbered and we are patient
To zero the countdown has begun
We exist but our hearts don't beat
The streets, our sacred haven Fight or flee don't waste another round [Solo: Pontus Norgren]
We exist, but our eyes run red
The dead will feast upon you Aiming high, don't chocke or you'll be downed Retribution a suicide solution Infected but you are not alone
All lives are numbered and we are all patient
To zero the countdown has begun
